Issue – 32

13th June 2025

Note from the Director of Sixth Form

The A Level exam season will be completed next week; thank you to Year 13 students who have returned their locker keys and donated unwanted textbooks for the Study Centre. Good luck to students who still have exams remaining – keep going, you are nearly there! For Year 12, next week is the final week in school before study leave. As a reminder, professional dress, including lanyards, must be worn during the Year 12 exams and students who do not meet the expected standards will be sent home to amend their dress. Thank you for your support with this.

Aside from exams and exam preparation, Year 12 EPQ students have been delivering their presentations this week at our series of EPQ evening events; the presentation marks the culmination of their year-long project and we really enjoyed hearing about their fascinating research. Students were also able to showcase and celebrate their research with visiting family and friends; well done everyone!

It has been a very busy week in Sixth Form; History students have been to The People's History Museum and the Jewish Museum in Manchester and Art students have been to the Art Degree Show at MMU. Students have also visited The University of Leeds as part of our Life After Laurus programme. Chemistry students have taken part in the Cambridge Chemistry Challenge. Mrs Gashau delivered this week's assembly on Cultural Literacy. She focused on the importance of accepting difference and students explained the meaning behind their given names.

Following the appointment of our new Cabinet, we are very pleased with the number of students who have taken the initiative to start/take over the running of the clubs and societies in Sixth Form. These include: Medics, STEM Society, Islamic Society, Hong Kong Society, Senior Social Sciences Society and Crafts and Colouring Society to name a few. We also have various Music clubs across the school. Subject departments also offer a variety of revision, intervention and subject-based sessions; there are a lot of activities for students to get involved with. Members of the cabinet also organised a fabulous bake sale this week with lots of delicious treats, raising £154 to help fund some of the exciting plans the cabinet have for the year ahead!

As you may be aware, students taking part in the Duke of Edinburgh award are required to complete a specified number of hours volunteering. We are pleased to share an update from @DofENorth – 'during 2024/2025 DofE students from CHHS and the Sixth Form have spent a phenomenal 4238 hours volunteering, with a social value of £27122'. This is a fantastic achievement and we are very proud that our students' hard work has been recognised; congratulations and well done!
